

JOHN E. ALLEN, INC.

JEA 1E02 - ENGLAND - WWII AND STEEL PROCESSING

<9/94>

[u-bit #99015920]

1592-1-3

- 02:00:13 1) VWRS clinic for orphan children - nurses playing with children, (N) WWII: England -
-02:01:08 naked babies on table ready for bath Homefront -3-[sound-narration]
- 02:01:11 2) men, women, and children getting faces measured for and being (N) WWII: England -
-02:01:36 issued gas masks in France / Homefront -3-02:01:36 gas bags being issued to infants in London [sound-narration]
-02:01:59 [also on 1G14
04:25:54-
04:26:43]
- 02:02:02 3) “Your Home As An Air Raid Shelter” (N) WWII: England -
-02:04:10 - bombers fly over head, workers cleaning up debris, man coming Homefront -4-out of shelter, family at home reading newspaper, man leaving [section] house and going to Post Office, getting brochure “Your Home As An Air Raid Shelter”, man and woman fortifying their home by building walls, preparing basement, putting cloth on front of windows behind bookcase, fireman carrying girl in his arms after bombing, family in basement shelter with man smoking cigarette

<3/97>

2415

- 02:04:28 1) Steel - steel processing in England with incandescent liquid metal, (N) Industry: Steel workers at equipment, testing, measuring, excavations - large crane (1945) Color shovel, steel foundry open freight cars with limestone [Technicolor]
02:12:14 Bessemer converted process flames gradually changing colors [sound-narration]
02:17:40 metal shaping
02:21:20 workers shoveling coal to furnace with high flames
[Technique Film Production In Association With The Film
-02:22:10 Producers Guild]